not all real estate agents are REALTORS®?

All REALTORS® are licensed real estate agents, but not all agents are REALTORS®.

Real estate agents and brokers are licensed by the state. But REALTORS® go way beyond the basic legal requirements, providing consumers with the very best in terms of knowledge, service, and professionalism.

I'm proud to be a REALTOR®. I maintain active memberships in the National Association of REALTORS®, the Texas Association of REALTORS®, and my local REALTOR® organization. When you hire me, you're hiring someone who is dedicated to the highest standards in the business. I have pledged to uphold the strict REALTOR® Code of Ethics, which means I'll always put your interests first.
